Enquiries amongst ex-government officials show that the report in the Shanghai Times of March 20 regarding the resignation of General Yang Chih, Chinese Ambassador to Russia, is correct, although it came from a Japanese source. General Ho Yao Chu, former Chinese Minister to Turkey, is likely to succeed General Yang.

CHINESE AMBASSADOR TO RUSSIA QUILS

Resignation Believed To Be Result From Moscow Pressure

HONGKONG, March 19. — Mr. Yang Chieh, Chinese Ambassador to the Soviet Union who recently returned to China, has tendered his resignation to the Chungking Government, it was learned here today.

Mr. Yang was believed to have resigned, according to reliable sources, here because of the lack of confidence in him by Soviet authorities.

As a result, it was understood, he was unable to make any special contribution towards Soviet-Chinese relations during his tenure of more than two years as Ambassador to Moscow.

The Chinese Communist Party, it was also learned, repeatedly criticized his failures, and the Party was understood to have demanded his transfer.

Mr. Shao Li-tsi who belongs to the pro-Soviet faction of the Chungking Government, was being regarded here as the likely successor. The Chungking Government, it was believed, would make this appointment with the view of appeasing the Chinese Communist Party.

Mr. Ho Tao-tsu, who last year went on a special mission to Moscow, would also be considered a strong candidate for the post except for the fact that Soviet authorities were understood to be against his appointment.

Mr. Yang is now at his home in Tali, Yunnan province.—Dornel.

Chinese-American Daily News, Sin Wan Pao, Ta Mei Pao, Shun Pao, Hwa Pao (Chungking telegram) :-

CONCLUSION OF SIXTH PLENARY CONGRESS OF THE KUOMINTANG

The Sixth Plenary Congress of the Kuomintang held its opening session on November 12. During the past nine days, seven sessions were held, in the course of which the delegates, in addition to making reports on important affairs, discussed many subjects. General Chiang Kai-shek and all the Kuomintang members present listened to reports with close attention and earnestness and brought many things under discussion.

After the weekly memorial service on the morning of November 20, the 7th session of the Sixth Plenary Congress was held with General Chiang Kai-shek as chairman. During the proceedings various important proposals were passed.

The following resolutions were passed during the 7th session of the Congress :-

- (1) That a manifesto be issued. (Full text of the manifesto appears in to-day's "China Press".)
- (2) That a circular telegram be issued to console brethren in war areas.
- (3) That General Chiang Kai-shek hold the post of President of the Executive Yuan concurrently with his other positions; that Dr. H.H. Kung remain as Vice-President of the Yuan.
- (4) That the Presidents of the five Yuans, Mr. Chow Lu, Dr. H.H. Kung, General Feng Yu-hsiang, General Yen Hsi-san, General Pai Chung-hsi, General Chen Tsi-tang and nine others be appointed standing committeemen of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang.
- (5) That the following appointments be made :-
 - a) Yeh Chu-chang to be Chief Secretary of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang with Kan Nai-kwang as Assistant.
 - b) Dr. Chu Chia-hua to be Chief of the Organization Department with Wu Kai-sien and Ma Chao-tsing as Assistants.
 - c) Dr. Wang Shih-chieh to be Chief of the Central Propaganda Department with Pan Kung-chen and Hollington Tong as Assistants.
 - d) Koh Tseng-kong to be Chief of the Social Affairs Department with Wong King-chuin and Hung Lai-yue as Assistants.
 - e) General Wu Te-chen to be Chief of the Overseas Affairs Department with Siao Chi-san and Chow Chi-kong as Assistants.

At 1.45 p.m. November 20, General Chiang Kai-shek announced the conclusion of the Sixth Plenary Congress.

China To Continue War Against Japan, Says Manifesto

(United Press)

CHUNGKING, Nov. 20.—

Resistance against Japan will continue until the Japanese militarists come to their senses, the Kuomintang announced today following the conclusion of the Sixth Plenary Session of the Kuomintang's Central Executive Committee and Supervisory Committee, which appointed Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek Premier of China in succession to Dr. H. H. Kung.

The gist of the 4,000 word manifesto issued by the Kuomintang said:

"It is pointed out that as the foundation for a final victory has been laid, our present task is to complete all necessary preparations for national reconstruction.

"The essentials of this program were outlined in the manifesto of the Fifth Party Congress held in 1935.

Improved Administration

"For the present, heightened efficiency and improved administration are to be especially emphasized.

"As the strain of the war increases so must all our forces, material and moral, grow in proportion in accordance with the rule that the nations, like individuals, gather strength from adversity.

"One of the two most important resolutions adopted by the session is that of convening the National Peoples Assembly in the course of next year in fulfillment of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's will and consistent with the Party in the U.S.S.R. in the era of Democracy.

"The second is that of expediting administrative reconstruction of Municipal Government, fundamentals of which were promulgated last September.

Full Democratic Rule

"It is expected that the reforms then proposed will eventually serve as effective preliminaries for full Democratic rule and the realization of the San Min Chu Yi (Three Peoples Principles).

"As to the policy of national resistance, it has been stressed by the Generalissimo in his opening address. First, resistance will go on until the Japanese militarists come to their senses. Second, by our own efforts, above all, and by maintaining our confidence in friendly nations we shall, at least, achieve final victory which will safeguard the world for peace.

"Third, we shall abide by the four principles of our national policy formulated since the invasion of Manchuria:

"1. Resisting aggression to protect our sovereignty and territorial and administrative integrity.

"2. Upholding the validity of international commitments, especially the Nine-Power Treaty, the League of Nations Covenant and the Anti-war Pact.

"3. Refusing to join an anti-Comintern agreement.

"4. Maintaining absolute independence in diplomacy.

"Recalling the experience of the past ten months and the continued assistance and sympathy lent us by friendly nations, especially in the sphere of war relief activities in spite of the European conflict, the Party, in the name of the entire nation, expresses to them its profound gratitude and is firmer than ever in its belief that, as long as Japanese aggression is not curbed, the danger of a common threat to the world will remain.

Destiny Indivisible

"After more than two years of resistance, we believe all the more that in modern times the destiny of nations is indivisible and no country can enjoy security with the rest of the world in the throes of war.

"In view of the growing conflict in Europe and the uncertain fate of mankind, we consider that our resistance to aggression is bound to have beneficial repercussions on the localization of war danger and the maintenance of world peace.

"Simultaneously, we sincerely believe that should world organization for world collective security be founded at the end of the European conflict and war in the Far East, the era of co-existence of all nations in universal peace may dawn with the cessation of hostilities.

"We believe, furthermore, that this deeply felt conviction is shared by farsighted and responsible statesmen of both hemispheres.

"We especially hope that all forces contributing toward peace can be rallied under this noble and common ideal for the eventual establishment an efficacious system of collective security."

Loh Ching Dz, a former chief judge of the Military Court of the Woosung-Shanghai Garrison Commander's Headquarters at Lunghwa, secretly arrived in Shanghai from Hongkong sometime about the end of October and left secretly for Shaoshing, Chekiang, after being here for about three days.

He visited Shanghai, it is learned, for the purpose of making arrangements with a number of persons on behalf of Tu Yueh Sung (杜月笙) who is still in Hongkong and is a member of "The Committee of the Military Affairs Commission for the Direction of Operations in Kiangsu and Chekiang Provinces" (江浙行動委員會). His mission in Shaoshing is believed to be connected with a plan for the readjustment of the guerrilla units operating around Shaoshing where the headquarters of those guerrilla units is located and are under the direct control of the said Committee.

The sojourn of Loh Ching Dz in Shanghai had nothing whatever to do with local labour or Kuomintang affairs.

Made by _____ and _____ Forwarded by Supt. Tan Shao Liang

As a result of enquiries made of all circles (pro-Chungking Government and pro-Japanese) no confirmation can be obtained as to the alleged arrival of General Yang Hu, Defense Commissioner of Shanghai in 1937. Nothing is known of Ma Fu Dien, the alleged secretary.

General Yang Hu amassed a fortune of over two million dollars during his last tenure of office in Shanghai and it is very doubtful that a man of his importance should have come at this time. The report was apparently a fabrication to strengthen the propaganda regarding Chinese Government terrorists in Shanghai.

CHUNGKING GOVERNMENT TRIES TO RESTORE FORTUNES BY DESPATCHING YANG FU TO SHANGHAI

According to reliable information, Ma Foo Dien, secretary of Yang Fu, smuggled himself into the French Concession under the instructions of the Chungking Government in the early part of September and made a base of activities at a certain place in the Concession.

Immediately after that, Yang Fu, the Former Commander of the Woosung-Shanghai Garrison Force, is alleged to have arrived in Shanghai from Hongkong.

It is very doubtful whether Yang Fu, however shrewd he may have been in former times, can carry out many activities in Shanghai under the present complicated and unfavourable circumstances.

The despatch of Yang Fu to Shanghai is regarded as a last effort by the Chungking Government to restore its dwindling fortunes.

The arrival of General Chen Ming Chu (陳銘樞) in Shanghai has not yet been confirmed.

It is, however, correct that General Chen has been relieved of the position as Chairman of the Diplomatic Affairs Commission of Chungking by Mr. Sun Fo who is now in Moscow.

Despite efforts made to induce him to leave for Chungking to take part in Government affairs, General Chen remained all the time in Hongkong complaining of ill-health and has never attended to his duties as a diplomat. His indifference was probably the cause for the change in appointments.

WAUNG CHING WEI GOING ABROAD

According to unconfirmed reports from foreign sources in Chungking, Mr. Waung Ching-wei, Chairman of the Central Political Council and Vice Executive of the Kuomintang, is planning to make a trip abroad. Mr. Waung is at present in Kwenming. The object of his trip has not been made public. Mr. Chen Kung-po (陳公博), Mr. Waung's trusted friend, has been summoned to Chungking from Chengtu and after interviews with important government officials he will proceed to Kwenming to meet Mr. Waung.

The report has attracted much attention among the local Chinese community because it has long been known in Shanghai that a great difference of opinion over political and other problems relating to the war of resistance exists between Mr. Waung and the leaders of the Communist Party.

(Editor's note: According to another report received, Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang has been entrusted with certain responsibilities at Yuan Ling (). Hunan Province. In the past, it has always happened that when Marshal Chang came into power, Mr. Waung would retire, or vice versa).

Ta Mei Wan Pao dated December 27 and other local newspapers published the following telegram from Hongkong :-

MR. WANG CHING-WEI'S DEPARTURE FROM CHUNGKING

According to a telegraphic report from Chungking, Mr. Wang Ching-wei, Deputy Leader of the Kuomintang, had long intended to leave Chungking. General Chiang Kai-shek has never been in accord with the views of Mr. Wang Ching-wei. When he learned of Mr. Wang Ching-wei's arrival in Indo-China, General Chiang Kai-shek at once sent him a telegram advising him to return to Chungking; he also instructed Dr. Wang Chung-wei (王寵惠), Minister of Foreign Affairs, who is at present in Indo-China undertaking certain negotiations with the Governor of Annam, to advise Mr. Wang Ching-wei to return to Chungking and that if Mr. Wang finds it inconvenient to return because of his indisposition, he should be persuaded to recuperate in Indo-China but not to go abroad.

It is being widely rumoured that Mr. Wang Ching-wei arrived in Hongkong from Hanoi by steamer on December 24, but no confirmation of this report could be obtained because his movements are being kept very secret.

Shanghai Daily News (上海日報), a mosquito paper, dated December 25 :-

It is learned that Mr. Wang Ching-wei left Chungking because of serious differences of opinion with members of the Communist Party.

Mr. Wang held the view that the statements issued by the Communist Party were too radical, while the Communist Party regarded Mr. Wang as too conservative.

Mr. Wang, however, is not an anti-Communist. Chinese people should bear this point in mind.

Far Eastern Daily News (遠東日報), a mosquito paper, published the following article on December 25 :-

the Government that he was willing to act as Chairman at meetings of the Council. At that time he had the intention to act as a leader to guide public opinion. However, his "peace" utterances were strongly criticized at the session of the National People's Political Council. Mr. Chen Chis-kang (陳其鏗), a well known overseas Chinese rubber magnate, even telegraphed to the Council suggesting that public officers should not make statements advocating peace. This was received with much approval by those present at the meeting of the National People's Political Council.

In the course of one of the meetings of the Council, the question of our future policy vis-a-vis Germany and Italy was discussed at some length. Some were in favour of retaining the present position, while others advocated a severance of diplomatic relations with these two nations. Mr. Wang Ching-wei supported the first group. However, a certain person who had strongly criticized Mr. Wang Ching-wei's "peace" utterances made a lengthy statement on the foreign policy that the Government should adopt in future. As a result, Mr. Wang's views were again turned down at the meeting.

Judging from the foregoing, it is probable that Mr. Wang Ching-wei is tired of political life and that this is the reason for his departure from Chungking.

Social Daily News (新華日報) published the following comment on December 27 :-

"Good-bye, Mr. Wang Ching-Wei!"

Since the outbreak of the war of resistance, Mr. Wang Ching-wei has also been afraid of trouble. However, the record of the 18 months' struggle shows that China is advancing along the path of revival. Mr. Wang does not seem to realize this.

Good-bye, Mr. Wang! We hope you will have peace and rest for the rest of your life in a foreign country!

Sin Shun Pao (Japanese owned Chinese language newspaper) :-

Wang Ching-Wei Has Been Delegated by Chiang Kai-Shek
To Ascertain Japan's Terms for Peace

According to information secured from reliable sources by the Chungking correspondent of the Trans-Ocean News Agency, the ostensible cause of Mr. Wang Ching-wei's resignation from the Kuomintang is ascribed to poor health; actually, however, his mission is to undertake peace talks with Japan. Of late grave internal dissensions have broken out between the Communist and anti-Japanese elements on one side and the peace party on the other. There is some talk to the effect that the assistance to be rendered by Soviet Russia, Great Britain, the United States and France will fall short of what was expected by the National Government.

December 28, 1938.

Afternoon Translation.

Ever since the fall of the Wuhan area, soldiers of the National Government army have become greatly demoralized and have practically lost their fighting spirit. Moreover, they are at present facing a serious shortage of arms and ammunition and other military necessities. The soldiers have not yet been supplied with winter clothing despite the cold weather. Some of them are even still wearing their autumn and summer uniforms.

Under such circumstances, the Kuomintang, realizing that it would be impossible for its soldiers to fight their opponents, desires to make peace with Japan as soon as an opportunity arises. The recent utterances made by Prince Komei, the Japanese Premier, to the effect that Japan would not demand any war indemnity or Chinese territory at the close of the Sino-Japanese incident, but she would, on the contrary, be prepared to abolish her extraterritoriality and return her concessions in China, have created a very favourable impression on the minds of the Kuomintang members, who are of the opinion that the present is the most suitable opportunity to open peace talks with Japan.

It was on this account that Mr. Wang Ching-wei, on the instructions of General Chiang-Kai-shek, recently retired from the Kuomintang under the pretext of recuperating his health. Mr. Wang has now arrived in Hongkong and his mission there is to seek the views of third Powers, especially Great Britain, after which he will indirectly approach Japan. This is a true explanation of Mr. Wang Ching-wei's departure from Chungking.

Shun Pao (Comment) :-

"What Sickness Is Mr. Wang Ching-Wei Suffering From?"

It is said that Mr. Wang is suffering from heart trouble. At this time of national crisis, such a sudden attack of illness is rather suspicious.

Upon hearing the news, the invader has spread a series of rumours to the effect that Mr. Wang has left Chungking to negotiate with Japan as a representative of the Military Affairs Commission of the National Government. Such rumours are naturally groundless.

As a matter of fact, Mr. Wang's departure from Chungking is due to political illness, internal rather than external. We firmly believe that he will not be so foolish as to open peace negotiations with Japan.

General Chiang Kai-shek has explained that Mr. Wang's departure this time is purely an individual act and has no connection with national affairs. The object of Mr. Wang's departure has thus been made clear.

Standard Evening Edition dated December 23 (Comment):

"Farewell, Wang Ching-wei"

FILE The other day, Wang Ching-wei left Chungking en route to Hongkong.

During the past few months, Wang has been reprimanded, criticized and abused by the people. Now that Wang has left, the Government has removed a heavy burden.

In wartime all uncertain and weak-minded elements are liable to be affected. Mr. Wang, a veteran revolutionary, is one of those affected. This is an indication of the strength of China's new era.

Hereafter, Wang becomes only a simple individual; therefore, it is not necessary for us to pay any more attention to his movements.

The death of Mr. Wang Yi-ting, 72, well-known Shanghai shipping man and philanthropist, occurred here at an early hour yesterday morning. Mr. Wang had just returned from Hongkong, where he had been since November of last year and was exceedingly active in raising funds for the Chinese refugees.

One of the more prominent figures in Chinese business and financial circles here, Mr. Wang had been a resident in Shanghai for many years and is survived by a widow and a large family. He was perhaps best known as the founder of the Shanghai Benevolent Cemetery Association, the organization which picks up tens of thousands of corpses from the streets of Shanghai every year.

It is also understood that he was active in Red Cross work from time to time and lent his support to other charitable organizations as well.

Although Mr. Wang died of heart failure, it was believed that the attack was brought on by the strain of the trip from Hongkong and the sudden change in climate. He had planned to make his home in Shanghai again but was staying at the residence of a friend in Avenue Road at the time of his death.

The encoffining ceremony will take place to-morrow morning and will be carried out in accordance with the Buddhist Ritual.

Issue of Russian passports from Hankow and Shanghai Police.
Made by and Forwarded by Supt. Tan Shao Liang

General Fong Chao (方超) has been appointed Chief of Hankow Police in succession to General Chen Hsi Tseng who has been transferred to the Field Headquarters in Hankow. General Fong is said to have been a student of the Whampoa Military Academy.

The Hankow Police have issued travelling passports to Russians leaving Shanghai for Europe and U.S.A.

In Shanghai Lu Ying, Chief of Police of the new regime, is issuing travelling passports to Russians duly registered with the Emigrants' Association who are leaving for Tsingtao and Japanese controlled areas but these documents are not valid for foreign countries.

a very arrangement.

There are rumours prevalent in ex-government circles that Sun Fo, President of Legislative Yuan, will soon relieve Dr. H.H.Kung of the important post of President of the Executive Yuan (Premiership), that Eugene Chen will become Foreign Minister and that T.V.Soong will be appointed Minister of Finance. These changes, it is expected, will ensure closer cooperation with Soviet Russia, the only country which can help China at the present moment and will strengthen the union between the communists and the Kuomintang.

Although there is a strong tendency towards this change, a portion of Kuomintang members belonging to the pro-Europe and pro-American cliques are opposed to the movement and it is not known what decision Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek will make.

Subject Hang Zah Chun (杭石君), former editor of Sin Wan Pao, returns to Shanghai.

Made by and Forwarded by Supt. Tan Shao Liang

Hang Zah Chun (杭石君), former editor of the Sin Wan Pao, and Koo Cheh Chung (顾哲中), a reporter of the same newspaper, left Shanghai in December last as a protest against Japanese censorship. They both departed for Hankow via Hongkong to seek new positions.

Koo Cheh Chung, it will be remembered, was a prominent figure at leftist meetings and was extremely anti-Japanese.

Hang Zah Chun interviewed General Chen Hsi Tseng (陈希曾) at Hankow but received no encouragement although they were very friendly whilst in Shanghai. General Chen, it is learnt, has been removed from the post of Commissioner of Hankow Police, and has become an adjutant to Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek.

Koo Cheh Chung has, it is reported, departed for Chungking and Hang Zah Chun has returned to Shanghai. He was seen in the house of Hwang Ching Yung on August 4, Hwang being his "Lau Der Ts".

Hang Zah Chun has not shown any intention of rejoining the Sin Wan Pao for fear of loss of face.

According to Mr. Hang, General Yang Hu, ex-Woosung Shanghai Defence Commissioner, and General Tsai Chin Chung, ex-Police Commissioner in Shanghai, are now in Canton, the former is undertaking the mission of reorganizing the Seamen's Union there whilst the latter is seeking a position with General Wu Te Chen, the Civil Governor of Kwangtung.

Japanese Reviving "Young Marshal's" Assassination Tale

(United Press)

PETPING, July 27.—The Japanese Special Military Mission, through the Provincial Government's organ, the Hsin Min Pao, today revived a report denied in Hankow last January alleging that Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang, kidnapper of Gen. Chiang Kai-shek, had been assassinated.

Marshal Chang was said to have been shot to death by the widow of Gen. Chiang Hsiao-hsien, bodyguard of the Generalissimo who lost his life at Sian during the kidnapping of December, 1936.

Mrs. Chiang was said to have shot the Young Marshal while he was playing tennis in the courtyard of Generalissimo Chiang's home.

The report printed by the Hsin Min Pao was identical to that circulated last January before the Young Marshal was appointed a member of the Military Affairs Commission in Hankow.

General Sun Chen Said In Shanghai

General Sun Chen, or Sun Teh-tsao, former commander of the 41st Chinese Army in the battle of Hsuehchow, is now in Shanghai, a local Japanese report alleged today.

Before the Hsuehchow fighting General Sun led about 50,000 soldiers but this number was reduced to about 2000 after his defeat, the report claimed.

The number of soldiers, commanded by General Yu Hsueh-chung and General Tzu-chung dwindled to about 3000 or 4000 as a result of their defeats in and around Hsuehchow, the report stated.

The general escaped death or capture by masquerading as a refugee, the report claimed. General Sun recently arrived here by way of Nanking the report asserted.

direction is undoubtedly afoot. The promoters, however, are finding it difficult to secure the right class of Information has been received from a reliable source that Mr. Tan Shao Yi has told one of his trusted friends

It appears that Chang Shiao Ling (張術平), leader of the Frenchtown fraternity, and Sheng Chih Sung (盛澤臣) have joined the service of the Japanese purely for their own personal interests and their action had nothing to do with plans of Hankow. The policy of the Chinese Government, as far as can be ascertained, is still firmly opposed to local notables taking active part in matters beneficial to the Japanese political or otherwise.

It is reported that Mr. Chao Siao Yueh (邵小月), son-in-law of General Chiang Pah Chi, ex-Tuchun of Chekiang, is endeavouring to secure the post as the Chief of the Consolidated Tax Bureau for Kiangsu, Anhwei and Chekiang. He was recommended to the Japanese authorities by Mr. Sheng Chih Sung (盛澤臣), 4th son of the late Sheng Kung Pao. X

It is also reported that Mr. Chang Siao Ling (張清林), head of the Frenchtown fraternity who according to a previous report has accepted a position in the Dah Dao City Government is contemplating the organisation of the Chekiang Maintenance Association with the object of protecting private properties in Hangchow and Mokanshan.

It is significant that Chang has displayed pro-Japanese attitude despite the fact that Tu Yueh Sung, his sworn brother, who lived in the same building in Rue Wagner, has gone to join the Hankow Government and it is also interesting that the 4th son of the Sheng family has become pro-Japanese when his 7th brother, Sheng Shen Yi (盛昇猷) departed in November, 1937, together with ex-Government officials for Hongkong.

The failure of the Green Gang of whom Mr. Doo is stated to be the leader to gain substantial influence over the Chinese underworld in the Crown Colony is given as the reason for his recall here.

The report that General Han Fu Chu, the Military and Civil Governor of Shantung, was executed at Hankow on January 24, is believed to be correct, the agent of the Civil Governor in Shanghai having received information of his arrest and detention. It appears that during the past few years, General Han had ignored the orders of Nanking and was independent in the administration of the province. His execution was therefore only natural in view of his stubborn and insubordinate attitude.

It is also rumoured in Shanghai that General Liu Hsiang, warlord of Szechuen, did not die a natural death, but had been poisoned whilst at Hankow.

Immediately following the execution of General Han, the Chinese Government issued an order appointing Mr. Shen Hung Lieh, the former Mayor of Tsingtao, to the post of Governor of Shantung, whilst General Chang Chun, the former Mayor of Shanghai, has become Civil Governor of Szechuen.

General TSAI CHING CHUN and Mr. LIU HWA (李华).

According to information received, General TSAI CHING CHUN, ex-Police Chief of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai, and Mr. LIU HWA, ex-Chief of the Detective Bureau of this Police Force, are reported to have returned to Shanghai on a secret mission.

Investigations have established that on November 23, 1937 General TSAI left for Hongkong with a British subject (? a Professor). In Hongkong he was joined by Mr. O.K. YUI, Mayor of Greater Shanghai, who left Shanghai on November 25. The two of them left for Hankow towards the end of November. According to information received from a well-to-do Chinese just returned to Shanghai, General TSAI was congratulated by Generalissimo CHIANG KAI SHEK, and General YANG HU, ex-Soongwu Garrison Commander, is said to have received a reward of $10,000.

Between November 12 and 23, General TSAI is said to have resided with Mr. CHEN KWANG CHUN, 4, Passage 500, Avenue du Roi Albert and at the Weida Apartment, 933 Avenue Joffre. (Mr. CHEN KWANG CHUN - Chief of the 1st. Section (General Affairs) of the Police Bureau of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai - now winding up the affairs of this office).

As for Mr. LIU HWA, he is at present in Shanghai. He is reported to be residing in the Western District of the French Concession. He does not go out often and is not engaged in any political activities. (He turned over to the French Police some 60 pistols intended for the use of his subordinates). His movements are conducted in such a discreet manner that we have as yet been unable to locate his present abode. He has now grown a moustache.

The false information concerning the presence in Shanghai of General TSAI emanated, we think, from Mr. LOU YING (卢英), ex-Chief of the Crime Branch of

As a result of enquiries made there are no indications that Mr. Tu Yueh Sung who is at present in Hongkong will return to Shanghai soon.

His recent departure from Shanghai was caused by pressure brought to him to take up the heavy responsibility of forming a maintenance association or autonomous government in Chinese territory but as long as he has not been given permission to do so by General Chiang Kai Shek, he is not likely to change his former loyalty to the Nanking Government. This belief is strengthened by the fact that most of his influential followers including Chu Hsueh Fan and Loh Ching Sz have gone to Hongkong to join him.

REPORT

Date..December..30..1937.

Subject..... Reported reorganization of the Chinese Government.

Made by..... and Forwarded by..... Supt. Ian Shao Liang

Regarding the attached report in the press, it has been confirmed by enquiries from a reliable source that a re-organization of the Chinese Government at Hankow will be effective as from January 1, 1938. Through these changes not only Mr. Wang Ching Wei and Mr. Chang Chun but Mr. Sun Fo will be deprived of their present positions and certain communist leaders will come into power with a view to effecting a solid and close cooperation between the Kuomintang and the Communist Party.

It is alleged that Mr. Wang Ching Wei was greatly opposed to the admission of communists into the Kuomintang and to interference with civil and military administrations and it is probable that because of the attitude he will have to leave this country.

As already reported the army officers of the 8th Route Army (Communists) have been entrusted with the important mission of enlarging their force in North China and General Pei Chung Hsi who is now in the South has been commissioned to recruit men in Kwangtung and Kwangsi to defend South China. These arrangements have been decided on as the result of the good showing put up by the Kwangsi and communist troops during the past several months and before long the strength of the two forces put together will be superior to that of the Central Army.

Although no confirmation can be obtained locally as to the re-distribution of members of the Military Affairs Commission, there are indications that plans are on foot to give important appointments to communist leaders to be stationed in the South West in order to secure their loyalty to the Central Government.

It has always been the policy of the Concession to ensure the satisfactory operation of all its services -- services which tend to increase with the development of the Concession. In its financial policy it has always been guided by the interests of the ratepayers and exercised great care not to increase the fiscal charges.

Thus, the total of actual expenditure in 1934 was $9,406,591; in 1935 $9,583,786; in 1936 $9,670,774. The estimate for 1937 is $9,786,115 and for 1938 it is only $9,815,330.

These figures prove that the financial policy of the Concession is sound. Despite the many difficulties of the present time, one can say that the financial position of the Concession is good.

HAND GRENADE THROWN ON JAPANESE LAUNCH FROM CHEKIANG ROAD BRIDGE

Another attack was made yesterday morning on a Japanese military launch in the Soochow Creek.

As two Japanese launches were moving along on the Soochow Creek, three Chinese on Chekiang Road Bridge threw a hand grenade at the launch. The explosion slightly wounded one of the Japanese soldiers on the launch.

The Japanese soldiers opened fire at the assailants with revolvers but nobody was hit. An officer of the Shanghai Municipal Police succeeded in arresting one of the three men and took him to Central Station for interrogation.

Yesterday's attack was similar to the one made on December 27, but this time the Shanghai Municipal Police were on the alert.

It is possible that further arrests will be made.

CHANGES TO BE MADE IN CHINESE GOVERNMENT

Hongkong, December 28.

According to well-informed circles, a number of changes are to be made in the Chinese Government in order to strengthen the dictatorial powers of General Chiang Kai-shek.

Thus Mr. Wang Ching-wei and General Chang Chun, the President and the Secretary-General respectively of the Central Political Council, will tender their resignations.

Mr. Wang Ching-wei will immediately leave for Europe. ---- Domei.

Reorganization Of Military Affairs
Body Said Stated

Plans for the reorganization of the Military Affairs Commission are now being considered and will be put into effect shortly, reliable local Chinese sources reported.

According to the report, the reorganization will involve a realignment of the members of the Commission, which is the supreme military organ of China.

Following the redistribution, army officers of the Eighth Route Army will have one-third of the membership of the Commission. An equal portion of membership will represent generals under General Li Tsung-jen, General Pei Chung-hsi, General Lin Hsiang and others. The remaining one-third of the membership of the Commission will represent generals under Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, the report asserted.

HAND GRENADES THROWN ON JAPANESE LAUNCH IN SOOCHOW CREEK :
ONE JAPANESE MARINE SLIGHTLY INJURED

At 11.20 a.m. yesterday when a Japanese launch carrying 12 marines ^{was} proceeding along the Soochow Creek, a Chinese on Honan Road Bridge threw three hand grenades on the vessel. One of the grenades exploded, slightly injuring a Japanese marine.

Hwa Mei Lan Pao Morning Edition :-

At 11.20 a.m. yesterday, 15 Japanese soldiers, some of them armed, were sailing in a small boat along the Soochow Creek. When near the Honan Road Bridge, three hand grenades fell into the boat. One immediately exploded, slightly wounding one of the Japanese soldiers.

Japanese military officers soon arrived at the place, while the wounded soldier was removed to the Japanese military hospital in Hongkew. The remaining soldiers left in the direction of North Szechuan Road.

After the incident, a spokesman of the Japanese authorities stated that the authorities of the International Settlement can not avoid responsibility for their negligence. The Japanese authorities will not make this affair into another incident, but they hope that the Settlement authorities will make an investigation to locate the person or persons responsible for the incident and impose adequate punishment on them. He added that after the incident a representative of the Settlement authorities called on the Japanese Consul-General to give an assurance that every effort would be made to trace the offenders and that several foreigners, Chinese policemen and one Sikh policeman, who had witnessed the incident, were being separately interrogated. According to these witnesses, they saw the landing of the hand grenades in the boat and the resulting explosion; they also saw a Japanese soldier wounded, lying in a pool of blood but they did not see the offender.

Ta Mei Lan Pao Morning Edition (Hankow telegram) :-

MR. SUN FO PROCEEDING TO MOSCOW

Mr. Sun Fo, President of the Legislative Yuan, is on his way to Moscow to open negotiations with the Moscow Government. The report that Mr. Sun will be appointed China's Ambassador to the U.S.S.R. is not true.

GENERAL TSAI CHING-CHUN STILL IN SHANGHAI

The report that General Tsai Ching-chun, the former Commissioner of the Shanghai City Government Police Bureau, has been executed by the Chekiang Provincial Government is untrue.

General Tsai is in hiding in Shanghai and his movements are being kept very secret. He changes his place of abode daily and for this reason his whereabouts are unknown even to his relatives.

Another report says that the reason why General Tsai had not left Shanghai is because a complaint had been made against him to General Chiang Kai-shek who has already issued an order for his arrest. He cannot go abroad as he has no passport. He wishes to go to Hongkong but fears lest he should be arrested there and handed over to the Chinese Government. This fear has been increased by reports that General Yang Hu, Woosung-Shanghai Defence Commissioner, has been extradited by the Hongkong authorities and has since been executed.

Very few persons have seen General Tsai. The reports that General Chiang Kai-shek had issued an order for the arrest of General Tsai and that General Yang Hu had already been executed lack confirmation.

Subject (in full) Abolition of the Central Political Council

Made by _____ and _____ Forwarded by _____ Subt. Tan Jinn Liang

The abolition of the Central Political Council of the Chinese Government which has resulted in the removal of Mr. Wang Ching wei from its chairmanship is said to be one of the economic measures adopted by the Government at Hankow in order to cut down expenses. The measure has no political significance whatever nor was it actuated by personal grudge towards Mr. Wang.

It is significant that Mr. Wang has been transferred to the Political Department of the Field Headquarters and one of his former close followers, General Huang Shao Chiang, has been appointed Governor of Chekiang.

General Ho Ying Ching is still Minister of War, while General Chiang Shih wei continues as Governor of Jiangsi.

General Huang Shao Chiang as mentioned above is Governor of Chekiang and Mr. Chen Kung fo (former Minister of Industry, a leading member of Wang Ching wei's clique) is now special delegate to Germany at the expense of the Government.

WANG CHING-WEI STILL LEADER

Many Political Posts Held Without C.P.C. Chairmanship

Although Mr. Wang Ching-wei automatically retired from the chairmanship of the Central Political Council, which was recently abolished by the Chinese Government, in keeping with his policy of saving political expenses in order to continue hostilities he is still considered by well-informed Chinese circles in Shanghai to be one of the political leaders of the Chinese Government.

Besides his C.P.C. position, Mr. Wang is still an important official in other Chinese Government organizations, notably in the Central Kuomintang Headquarters. He and General Chang Chun are said to be in full charge of the political department of the Headquarters of the Commander-in-chief of the Land, Sea and Air Forces, the highest position held by General Chiang Kai-shek since the start of the undeclared war.

It is generally believed by Chinese in Shanghai that since the military take highest rank in authority during the present time, political organizations are being subordinated or entirely abolished, but the political framework is still there.

Wang Ching-wei Loses Post With Government

With the reorganization of the Central Government, the Central Political Council has been abolished, according to Chinese reports here today. Mr. Wang Ching-wei, chairman of the Council, General Chang Chun, secretary-general, General Ho Yin-ching, General Hsiung Shih-hui, General Hwang Shao-hsiung, and Mr. Chen Kung-po, members, have automatically been eliminated from their posts.

General Chiang Kai-shek, president of the Executive Yuan and chairman of the Military Affairs Commission, stated officially that Mr. Chen Kung-po and General Chiang Po-li are now visiting Europe in a personal capacity, and have no connection with the Chinese government or with himself.

The central government troops who defended Nanking, and General Tang Sheng-chih, their garrison commander at Nanking, will go to Hankow for a deserved rest. At Hsuehchow, where fierce fighting is expected, large numbers of central government and Kwangsi troops are being concentrated.

Under the command of General Li Tsung-jen, commander-in-chief of the Route Army and former pacification commissioner of Kwangsi, the Chinese troops are expected to put up stiff resistance against the Japanese.

With the strong defense works built for some years along the Lunghai Railway, it is believed that the Japanese troops will face strong opposition in northern Kiangsu and in Honan province.

In Anhwei, Chinese troops have completed their new defense line against the Japanese. General Chen Cheng, vice-minister of war, is directing military operations in southern Anhwei. The troops along the whole Kiangsi-Anhwei front are being commanded by General Pai Chung-hsi, one of the outstanding military strategists of China.

In Chekiang and Fukien, the troops are under the command of General Chang Fa-kwei, and in Kwangtung and Kwangsi General Li Chi-sen is commander. Those in Shansi and Shensi are under the command of General Chu Teh.

Information has been received from well informed sources that Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek has given full authority to General Pei Chung Hsi of Kwangsi and the Communist Generals Chu Teh and Mao Tse Tung to reorganize the Chinese army and to train the recruits.

It is also reported from the same source that extremist politicians are very active in Hankow and Chungking and are interfering with civil administrations. Fears are expressed that if the war is prolonged China will become sovietized.

It is reported that prior to their departure for Hongkong, Messrs. Tu Yueh Sung and Ling Kong Hou were approached by certain Japanese to take up high positions in the new administration of Shanghai but as both have turned down the offer, the Japanese, it is alleged, are endeavouring to persuade Mr. Lo Pah Hung, the well known Catholic priest and capitalist in Shanghai, to take the leadership of the Shanghai Government. It is believed that Mr. Lo is hesitating as to what course he should take. He has huge investments in the Nantao Tramways and Electricity Company as well as in the Chapei Waterworks.

At the same time he fears an attack by loyalists of Nanking should he side with the Japanese. Other prominent persons including Yu Ya Ching and Wang I Ting who are reported to have been approached, are finding themselves in a similar position.

It is reported that dwelling houses and shops in the area surrounding the City Temple at the Small East Gate have been entered by Japanese soldiers. After making a thorough search they removed all clothing and other articles they took their fancy. Unoccupied houses were broken into and searched.

With reference to the rumours prevalent in Shanghai since the beginning of this month that General Yang Hu, ex-Woosung-Shanghai Defence Commissioner, and General Tsai Ching Chun, ex-Chief of the Police Bureau, have been executed and the conflicting reports re the locality of the execution, Hanschow, Nanking and Hankow having been mentioned as the venue, certain ex-government officials remaining in Shanghai have been approached regarding these reports. As far as can be ascertained, the two generals have arrived in Hankow, but no one seems to be in a position to confirm or deny the reports about execution as no announcement has been published by the Government. The executions, if true, might have been carried out secretly as was done in the case of the Communist leader Deng Yien Tah who immediately after his removal to Nanking ^{in August 1937} met his death in mysterious circumstances.

The Social Evening News (社会晚报) dated December 19 :-

EXECUTION OF GENERAL YANG HU AND GENERAL TSAI CHING-CHUN

The reported execution of General Yang Hu, Woosung-Shanghai Defence Commissioner, on the orders of the Military Affairs Commission at Hankow has now been confirmed.

General Yang Hu was charged with misappropriation of the goods stored in the Joint Savings Bank Godown on North Soochow Road. It is alleged that the goods in the godown would have been removed during the withdrawal of Chinese troops from Chapei but for General Yang's order prohibiting the owners to remove the goods because he had not been given sufficient bribes. When the Lone Battalion was holding the godown, the owners offered huge bribes to General Yang Hu whereupon they were allowed to remove the goods but only 1/5ths were taken out.

General Tsai Ching-chun, Commissioner of the Shanghai City Government Police Bureau, has also been executed by order of the Military Affairs Commission for his weak defence of Nantao and his failure to bring about an orderly retreat of his men during the withdrawal, thereby causing a large loss of mauser pistols, light machine guns, etc. Another cause of his execution was the loss of the rice supplies stored in Nantao. This rice could not be removed by the owners because General Tsai wanted a bribe that was too heavy.

Police Bureau Chief Executed

Tsai Killed At Hankow For Nantao Capture; Yang Hu Shot

The execution of General Yang Hu, former garrison commander of the Woosung-Shanghai Area, as reported by this newspaper, has been confirmed, according to a Chinese dispatch which states that not only he, but the former director of the Police Bureau of the City Government of Greater Shanghai, General Tsai Ching-chun, were shot in Hankow about two weeks ago by orders of the Military Affairs Commission.

It is stated that General Yang was convicted on charges of causing the seizure by the Japanese of goods valued at tens of thousands of dollars, which were stored by local merchants in the godown of the Joint Savings Society located north of the Soochow Creek. These cargoes could easily have been removed to safe quarters, had it not been for his refusal to grant permissions to their owners to do so, owing to their failure to give him "handsome bribes." It was not until the arrival of the "doomed battalion" in that godown that sufficient offers were made to him, and then he only allowed one-fifth of the merchandise to pass through.

The charges on which General Tsai was convicted, it is also reported, include his half-hearted defense of Nantao against the Japanese, his lack of plan and order in the evacuation of Chinese troops from that district, which caused the loss of over 10,000 rifles and other up-to-date weapons, and his extortion of funds from local merchants in return for permissions to remove rice from Nantao.

Denial Issued That Mayor Left Town

A definite denial of the report circulated by the Domei news agency last night reporting that Mayor O. K. JAPANESE DAILY WANTS OFFICIAL MOVED

The surrender of Mr. O. K. Yui, Mayor of Greater Shanghai, and Lieutenant-General Tsai Ching-chun, head of the Chinese Police Bureau, who are reported to be in residence in the French Concession, is advocated by the Shanghai "United News," Japanese newspaper, in an editorial yesterday morning.

The newspaper's contention is that Chinese officials who advocated resistance to Japan should not be afforded protection in the foreign areas of Shanghai, their presence being calculated to disturb further the peace of the city.
